Remember who I am and who you are

A Letter to Luke

Volume 1, Issue 6 September 9, 2011

"Birthin' Babies"

"Lawzy, Mz. Scarlett, I don't know nuthin' bout birthin' no babies!"
(from Gone with the Wind)

A great line from a great movie.

Do you want to know the difference between Prissy and you? You definitely know somethin' 'bout birthin' some babies!

As a part of the family at Luke you have been busy giving birth.

Our theme for this season is "Remember: who I am and who you are."

"Remember" declares that what was, is and always will be!

Says God, "Remember! I was your Creator. I am your Creator. And I always will be your Creator.

Humanity was made in My image. Humanity is made in My image. And humanity always will be made in My image."

God was, is, and always will be our Creator. And He made us to create.

God gives birth. And we are to give birth.

I invite you to open this newsletter and poke your head in to view the babies you've just birthed.

They are yours!

Enjoy them.
Experience them.
Pray for them.

A tid-bit of info: What does 'travailing' mean?

Yesterday I saw someone and was overcome with a love so deep for them that I was moved to tears. As I asked the Lord, "What in the world was that about?" I was reminded of the word travailing.

Travail means to be in labor. Spiritual travailing is "birthing through prayer." (Intercessory Prayer)

It is a burden placed on one's heart by the Holy Spirit to pray for "a given promise, a prophetic insight or a Holy Spirit illuminated need in a person, church, city or nation.

Sometimes there is unexplainable weeping.

Sometimes there isn't.

But, always there is an unexplainable urge prompted by the Holy Spirit to pray for God to push something through.

You may know what that something is. And, you may not. But, always it is something worth praying for.

“Remember Wednesdays”

Bible Study:

The Love of God

6:00-6:45 pm

Wednesday evening

Does something deep inside your heart long to break free from the status quo? Are you hungry for an authentic faith that addresses the problems of our world with tangible, even radical, solutions? God is calling you to a passionate love relationship with Himself. Because the answer to religious complacency isn't working harder at a list of do's and don'ts — it's falling in love with God. And once you encounter His love, you will never be the same. Because when you're wildly in love with someone, it changes everything. Join Pastors Frank Akin and Gary Chapman on Wednesday nights as we explore the book Crazy Love: Overwhelmed by a relentless God by Francis Chan. This 10 week study will cause us to look at the condition of our own faith and help us learn to live like we are in love with God, because He has a Crazy Love for us!

Prayer Walking

In

Denham Springs
and Baton Rouge

Several Saturdays a month

Visit

theprayerhouse.org

for dates and locations

11:00-12:00am

On Saturday,
September 24

We will start at the Whistlestop, prayer walk the antique district and end at the train station at 10:45 for group prayer.

The purpose of prayerwalking is to change the spiritual atmosphere over the Baton Rouge/Denham Springs region by asking God to move and release justice, creativity and righteousness. And to provide safety in schools and restoration to families.

If you are unable to walk just bring a chair and sit in the area and pray or drive the area.
